The Out-of-Sync Child: Sensory Processing Disorder

April 11, 2016
8:30am— 4:00pm

Dixon Elks Lodge
1279 Franklin Grove Rd.
Dixon, IL 61021
Registration begins at 8:00am

Featuring Guest Speaker Carol Kranowitz, M.A.

Author of “The Out-of-Sync Child”

Training will cover:

- Sensory Processing description
- Sensory Processing Disorder (SPD) - impact on behavior
- Identifying and treating SPD in young children
- Activities to develop and enhance sensory and perceptual motor skills.

This Seminar is paid for in part by a federal grant from the Health Resources and Services Administration / Office of Rural Health Policy and with the support of Kreider Alliance.

About the Presenter:

Carol Kranowitz, M.A., observed many children with Sensory Processing Disorder (SPD) during her twenty-five year career as a music and movement teacher. Today she speaks internationally about SPD’s effect on children’s learning and behavior and how families and teachers can help.

Her first book in the “Sync” series, “The Out-of-Sync Child”, has sold about one million copies and was recently selected by Brain, Child Magazine as one of the top ten books about children with disabilities. Carol’s new book, “The Out-of-Sync Child Grows Up”, will be published in May. Carol, now living in Bethesda Maryland, graduated from Barnard College and earned her M.A. in Education and Human Development from George Washington University.
